

Mia Axon Consulting, LLC

About Mia Axon

Mia Axon is a passionate and energetic philanthropic leader with years of experience working with a broad range of nonprofit organizations. A strategic thinker, skilled in balancing long-term vision with short-term results, Mia has honed her skills working directly with donors as a frontline fundraiser. She is a proven manager, skilled at developing staff and enriching volunteer relationships. Mia has extensive experience building individual giving programs and expanding donor pipelines. Strengths include team building, principal and planned gifts, campaigns and volunteer engagement. Always at the top of her game, Mia is also a former world-class rock climber and concert harpist.

After serving as a philanthropic leader for more than 30 years, Mia set up Mia Axon Consulting, LLC, to help philanthropists find causes that reflect their values and legacy and to assist nonprofit executives and their teams in campaign planning and implementation, principal and planned giving programs, leadership transitions, and development program assessments. She helps nonprofit organizations better cultivate, solicit, and steward their donors, resulting in increased philanthropic support for great work.

Mia Axon LinkedIn speak to Mia's extensive leadership experience with two public research universities, multiple national environmental, education, health and social justice organizations, and several stand-alone nonprofits.